HAMER | TALLADEGA

Dantzig's Darling

Hamer USA design guru Jol Dantzig pulled out all the stops for the new Talladega guitar. Its maple neck and rosewood fingerboard are made for articulate highs, and the chambered mahogany body with string-through block bridge delivers endless sustain. Other features include a hand-carved figured maple top, bound with Italian ivoroid, and custom-designed, single-coil pickups created by Seymour Duncan and Jol Dantzig. MSRP: $3,100 (includes GC4-0 hardshell case). hamerguitars.com
